

History of JT and its CSR Activities

- 1985 Establishment of Japan Tobacco Inc.
- 1988 Branched out into beverage business
- 1993 Established the Central Pharmaceutical Research Institute
- 1994 Established the Corporate Culture Division*<sup>1</sup>
- 1995 Established the Global Environment Division
  - Set up the JT Global Environment Charter
- 1998 Branched out into processed food business
  - Acquired the majority share of Unimat Corporation*<sup>2</sup>
  - Acquired the majority share of Torii Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd.
  - Released the first environmental report
- 1999 Acquired the non-U.S. tobacco operations of RJR Nabisco Inc.
  - Acquired the food business of Asahi Kasei Corporation
- 2000 Set up the JT compliance system
- 2004 Set up the JT Group Environment Charter
- 2005 Launched the JT Forest initiative
  - (reforestation and forest conservation activities)
  - Set up the CSR Division
- 2006 Reorganized the CSR Division (with approaches to the global environment conservation and social contribution activities combined)
  - Set up the CSR Committee
- 2007 Launched afforestation and forest conservation activities in Africa
  - Acquired all the issued shares of the Gallaher Group plc (U.K.)
- 2008 Acquired all the issued shares of Katokichi Co., Ltd.
- 2010 Changed the name of Katokichi Co., Ltd. to TableMark Co., Ltd.

*<sup>1</sup> The present Corporate Citizenship Department

*<sup>2</sup> The present Japan Beverage Holdings Inc.

